Courage

Welcome Words

We have gathered in the name of God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, to worship together and think about our value courage.

Generosity

Did you know that our word courage comes from the Latin word 'cor' which means heart?

Take heart is another way of saying be courageous.

COURAGE
doesn't always ROAR.
Sometimes courage is that quiet voice at the end of the day saying,
"I will try again tomorrow."
-Mary Anne Radmacher

Courage

Being courageous doesn't mean that you aren't scared. Many courageous people have been scared but they stood up for what was right anyway.

Game- Odd
One Out

There can be many reasons for us to feel that we are standing alone, that we are an odd one out.

It takes courage to be different, to take a stand, to say 'No'.

Reflection

There would probably have been many others who believed the same as Daniel, but didn't have the same courage. Perhaps, in situations that we face where we are the odd one out, there are many others looking on who agree with us, but need a leader. Daniel was certainly that. As a result of his courage, the whole nation turned to his miracle-working God.

Dear God,
Thank you that you
protected Daniel.
When we are faced with difficult decisions, please help us to have the courage to choose what is right.

Prayer

A wooden cross made of two weathered planks is positioned diagonally on a grey, textured stone surface. In the bottom-left corner, a sprig of green, elongated leaves is visible. The text "Song- I Have a Song to Sing" is overlaid in white, sans-serif font across the center of the image.
